

University
of Dayton

Wednesday, January 24, 2024

12 PM - 1:15 PM EST

Chisme Report: The Virgin of Guadalupe

Speaker: Judith Huacuja, Ph.D

Scholar's Commons, 2nd floor Roesch Library

Lunch Provided

For More Information

This Image based discussion explores the revolutionary uses of the image of Guadalupe as a signifier of activist faith, as a warrior for social justice, and a Nepantla Protectress of migrants and members of the LGBTQia+ communities.

This event is sponsored by the International Marian Research Institute and the Graul Endowed Chair in Arts and Languages

