Essay questions

In order for the application team to get to know you, we ask that you answer each of the following questions.

Question 1

Lalanne teachers serve in under-resourced Catholic schools in both urban and rural settings. What motivates you to serve in under-resourced Catholic schools, and how do you view the role of a Catholic educator in promoting equity and community?

Question 2

Lalanne teachers are open to sharing meals, time, and their faith journey with each other. Describe your desire to be part of a community with these expectations. Include any previous experiences such as prayer, retreats, spiritual development, etc.

Question 3

Teaching and living in community is rewarding, but it can also be challenging. Please describe your ability to manage conflict and share an example of what helped you to grow in this area.

Question 4

What specifically draws you to Lalanne over traditional teaching routes or other post-graduate service programs?

Certification

I certify that the information I have provided in this application is accurate to the best of my knowledge. ❍ Yes ❍ No
