

University of Dayton School of Engineering

GRAD STUDENT OPEN HOUSE

University of Dayton
School of Engineering

October 5 | 1–3 pm
Kettering Labs | Dayton, OH

Schedule

- 1:00 – 1:30 p.m.: Check-in, refreshments, and campus tours led by Ambassadors or self-led 1:30 – 2:00 p.m.: Welcome and presentation by Dean Eddy Rojas in Sears Recital Hall
2:00 – 3:00 p.m.: Program-specific conversations & lab tours with faculty and current students

- Discover the benefits of a University of Dayton School of Engineering graduate degree
- Explore graduate certificate programs
- Learn about the application process and requirements
- Explore graduate assistant opportunities
- Meet our graduate program directors & faculty

Representatives from the following academic areas will be on hand to answer your questions.

- Bioengineering
- Chemical and Materials Engineering
- Civil and Environmental Engineering and Engineering Mechanics
- Electrical and Computer Engineering
- Electro-Optics and Photonics
- Engineering Management and Systems
- Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering Renewable & Clean Energy

Quick Directions

Type 1 Evanston Ave, Dayton, Ohio into GPS. Upon arrival, a guard booth and parking lot C will be on your left. Parking is free on the weekends. Kettering Labs is the five-story building on the other side of log C. Enter through the doors facing the parking lot, go up a short flight of stairs and turn right. Follow the hall to the right to the lobby.

Detailed Map and Directions

https://udayton.edu/engineering/_resources/pdfs/dean/map-ud-soe2017.pdf

Questions?

jgrant2@udayton.edu | 937-229-3998