

Mary Anderson

- Born in Alabama in 1866
- After visiting NYC during the winter in 1902, she saw the need for clear windshields and quickly made a prototype
- Invented the first successful windshield wiper in 1903
- Her invention became standard equipment by 1913
- She was inducted into the National Inventors Hall of Fame in 2011

