

Madam C.J. Walker

- Born in Louisiana in 1867 with the name Sarah Breedlove
- Suffered an illness that made her hair fall out
- At the age of 38, invented an African-American hair product
- She traveled around the country promoting the product
- Eventually established Madame C.J. Walker Laboratories
- One of the first American women to be a self-made millionaire
- She was also known for donating to several philanthropies

