Join us for a virtual teach-in every week in April to:

- Provide evidence-based information and perspective on the COVID-19 pandemic and its implications.
- Engage students in learning, understanding and action.
- Ensure collaboration across campus in being responsive to the challenges the pandemic poses.

April 3 Public Health and the Common Good
3-6 P.M.
- The Common Good
- The Virus and Public Health
- Political Systems
- Mental Health
- Racial Justice
- The Human Right to Health

April 8 Social Justice Implications
3-6 P.M.
- The implications on vulnerable groups including refugees and the incarcerated
- The impact on civil and political rights
- Ableism and the Human Body
- Medical Trauma
- Literature and pandemic

April 17 Economics and Workers’ Rights
3-6 P.M.
- Global Economic Systems
- Neoliberalism and Catholic Social Teaching
- Workers’ Rights and Unemployment
- Poverty
- Forced Labor and Human Trafficking
- Feminist Perspectives

April 24th Practicing Solidarity
3-6 P.M.
- Volunteerism
- Advocacy
- Community Engagement
- Fellowship
- The Arts
- Spirituality

Click Here to Register
After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.