WHAT TO BRING

Essential:

- _____ Completed and signed Callings Program Rules and Agreement document and Callings Health History and Medical Release form.
- _____ Modest, casual attire (including one outfit for service day - see below)
- _____ Reusable Water Bottle (We will be on the move a lot, and want everyone to stay hydrated.)
- _____ Umbrella and/or Raincoat/poncho (We participate in activities rain or shine)
Rain gear will be key for some service sites!
- _____ Good Comfortable, Closed-toed Walking Shoes (you will not need any dress shoes!)
We will be doing a lot of walking both on campus and off campus, and service sites require close-toed shoes.
- _____ Sturdy shoes or boots that can get dirty for service
- _____ Outer layer / Old T-shirt that can get dirty for service
- _____ Jeans or long pants or longer knee-length khaki/cargo shorts for service projects (These will get dirty!..Goodwill is always a great option if you need a pair!)
- _____ Light Jacket, Sweater, or Sweatshirt
You never know when the air-conditioning in a building will work too well!
- _____ Personal Toiletries
Toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo, conditioner, soap, etc.
- _____ Essential medication
- _____ Sunscreen / Sunglasses/ Hat

Optional:

- _____ Bible, journal (for personal prayer and reflection)
- _____ Spending money (if you want to go to the bookstore)
- _____ Camera
- _____ Blanket, again, you never know if the air-conditioning may be too cool.

You DO NOT need to bring:

A pillow, bed linens, or towels – all are provided in the residence hall.
Personal computer (there is no time to use one!)
