HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

The orientation guidebook is designed to provide an important service to new students. Please bring it to the required events. Required events are listed on page 13 and are clearly marked on the schedule of events on pages 16 – 19. You will receive your room assignments for your First Flyer Class and Small Group Discussions at the initial welcome meeting on August 18 at 3 p.m. Residential students will meet on their residence hall floor, and commuter students will meet in Kennedy Union, Room 310. This guide is also a resource for your first semester. If you need any additional information regarding your experience at UD, or where to go during New Student Orientation, the Office of New Student Programs is ready to assist. You can contact us at nso@udayton.edu or 937–229–2229.
WELCOME!

WELCOME TO THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON’S INCOMING CLASS OF 2012!

It is a pleasure to welcome you to the University of Dayton.

This is the most ethnically and geographically diverse class in school history. Entering test scores are high, and our expectations for this class are even higher.

You are joining a top-tier national Catholic research university that is defined by a search for knowledge and a belief that we learn best in community.

This is an extraordinary community of faith, of action, of belief in the power of service and of working together. That’s our Catholic, Marianist educational tradition.

At the University of Dayton, professors question and challenge students in an effort to prepare them with the ability to adapt in a changing world. You will grow in faith and learn to act more compassionately and with purpose — in the workplace, in your own communities and on the world stage. You will find your passion.

Take advantage of all this great University has to offer, inside and outside the classroom. This is the beginning of an educational journey that will enable you to discover your abilities, realize your potential — and perhaps even change the world.

We wish you academic success and all of God’s blessings,

Daniel J. Curran, Ph.D.  Joseph E. Saliba, Ph.D.
President  Provost
CELEBRATING OUR CATHOLIC TRADITION

The University of Dayton’s values began over 160 years ago with the Marianist religious who established a new school on a hill, now known as the University of Dayton. The hallmark of UD is our Marianist Charism: community, the discipleship of equals, faith, mission and Mary. As a Catholic, Marianist institution, we endeavor to provide an integral, quality education while teaching our students service, justice and peace.

We strive to live as a community, embodying a family spirit, a virtue given to us by members of the Marianist family. This Marianist family is made up of brothers, priests, sisters and lay people committed to continuing Mary’s mission of bringing Christ into the world. On campus, you will meet many Marianists — religious and lay persons who continue to create the welcoming, inclusive community that is UD.

You are welcome to be part of this Marianist family, a community engaging each other — and the world — through education, leadership and service. Take advantage of invitations to prayer and a home-cooked dinner with one of the many Marianist communities on campus. Learn more about the Marianists through a live-in experience with a community in the neighborhood or a vocation discernment retreat. Immerse yourself in the Marianist spirit by becoming a Marianist fellow, living in a Marianist student community, attending one of the Marianist activities on campus or by participating in lay Marianist formation. Whatever you do at UD, the Marianist spirit is always at work.

For more information about how to become involved, please contact Fr. Jim Fitz, S.M. in the Office for Mission and Rector at 937–229–2899.
BLESSING FOR THE NEW CLASS

May God, our gracious and loving creator, the source and sustainer of life, bless you and keep you, throughout your years at the University of Dayton.

May Jesus Christ, the light of the world, enlighten your hearts and minds as we — students, faculty, staff, and administration — together search for the truth.

May the Spirit of God, the spirit of love, the source of unity, sustain us in building a diverse learning community that educates the whole person and respects the dignity of each person.

May the blessing of almighty God, descend upon all of us sustaining our commitment to challenge and encourage a new generation of students to learn, lead and serve.

Amen.

Father James Fitz, S.M.
Vice President for Mission and Rector
WELCOME NEW DAYTON FLYERS!

Congratulations on your decision to join our Catholic, Marianist family.

The Division of Student Development is committed to providing you with an educational, inspirational and fun orientation program designed to introduce you to academic and student life at the University.

Your experience at UD will be filled with many opportunities and challenges. Please remember that you are part of a community that embraces the core principles of integrity, dignity, respect and individual responsibility to foster and maintain a positive and productive learning and living community.

I wish you great success in your journey.

William M. Fischer, J.D.
Vice President for Student Development
We are so excited that you have chosen to become part of this incredible UD family! As we begin our senior and junior year, we cannot believe how fast the time flies at UD. That being said, we have a couple of pieces of advice for you.

Think about what you want to get out of college. Yes, that should include fun, but think about who you are as well as the many abilities and passions you want to tap into in the next four years. There are unlimited resources at this University that will prepare you for wherever your interests lead you.

Get involved! Everyone on campus is so friendly and will welcome you with open arms to any group that you have an interest in joining. Don’t be afraid to look into activities that intrigue you, as this will give you the opportunity to meet people with similar interests. Think about organizations, intramurals, events, etc. that sound fun and ask around … people will be more than willing to help you find your niche!

Student Government Association (SGA) is a wonderful way to begin your involvement on campus. If you have any desire to be a voice for the UD community, SGA is a perfect way for you to develop your leadership abilities and become knowledgeable of how best to represent the student body.

If you are interested in joining SGA or if we can be of any help to you throughout your transition, please don’t hesitate to visit us at the SGA office — Kennedy Union room 253. Again, welcome to the start of four amazing years!

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION TEAM

The NSO 2012 Student Leadership Team has worked to lead, plan and implement an orientation that will inspire first-year and transfer students to become passionate about the University of Dayton. New Student Orientation is designed to give students insight into the Catholic, Marianist community that students join when they attend UD.

The 2012 Leadership Team focused on creating a welcoming environment for new students through community building, academic and social events that students participate in throughout orientation weekend.

Thanks to the Student Leadership Team for their hard work and dedication to NSO 2012!

NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION REQUIRED PROGRAM INFORMATION

While all orientation events are important to your success as a student at UD, there are a few that you cannot miss! All new students are required to attend all of the events listed below. These events are highlighted on the New Student Orientation Schedule with a series of outlining, shading, and academic symbols (refer to schedule legend on page 16).

PRESIDENT’S WELCOME EVENT
Join your fellow new Flyers and their family members for an introduction to the spirit of the University of Dayton. You will experience just a taste of what life as a Flyer will be like at one of the largest family gatherings at the University. Come early for free food, then enjoy the pep rally prior to the important and inspiring messages from President Dan Curran and Provost Joe Saliba.

OPENING AND CLOSING CEREMONIES
You won’t want to miss the opportunity to be amongst the entire incoming class of 2012 at each of these ceremonies. Show your energy and excitement at the opening ceremony where you will meet the 2012 orientation team and review the activities for the week. Bring your school spirit and Flyer pride to the closing ceremony and celebrate your transition into Flyer life.

SMALL GROUP MEETINGS
(Please bring this Orientation Guidebook with you to these meetings.) These meetings, led by your assigned Welcome Team, are designed to give you the opportunity to meet and connect with fellow students, faculty, and staff while discussing and exploring transition topics.

FIRST FLYER CLASS
New students head to classrooms around campus to engage in one of a variety of exciting lectures offered by UD faculty or staff members.

DEANS’ ADDRESSES AND ACADEMIC ADVISING
The events in this category depend on your individual major, School or College. All students should attend the Dean’s Address in the School or College that houses their major. The first-year experience classes are required and count for class attendance! Specific information about what is required in your academic area is listed on pages 41 – 54.

CONVOCATION
The administration, faculty and students gather to formally begin the academic year. During the ceremony, a faculty member and current student will share some of their most academically engaging experiences in order to inspire and motivate you before classes begin the following morning.

Social Events are scheduled throughout the program and we hope you will attend as many as possible in order to meet your new classmates! For a complete listing of program descriptions, please visit go.udayton.edu/nso.

Up the Orgs

August 24, 2012  3 – 6 p.m.  Central Mall

You may be feeling overwhelmed after meeting new people, attending scheduled activities and preparing for classes — all while defining your new role in the UD community. Pretty soon though, you’ll feel more comfortable as you develop a routine, learn your way around campus and hang out with new friends. Part of adjusting to college and making the most of your experience is becoming involved. Whether you’re interested in fitness, wellness, academics, service or spirituality, UD has a club for you!

One way to learn about these different organizations is to attend Up the Orgs, an event highlighting each club and organization. Come to the Central Mall (beside Kennedy Union) Friday, August 24 from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and begin your journey as part of our community.

Stop and take a look around, and don’t be afraid to introduce yourself and ask questions. You never know what you might learn! If you need more information after Up the Orgs, check out the Student Life and Kennedy Union website, www.udayton.edu/studev/studentlife/. Be on the lookout as more information about organizations will come through your student email and Porches. All of our organizations are looking for new members and they want to meet you. Who knows? You could be president of your favorite organization in just a couple of years!

ALCOHOL EDU

As part of our comprehensive alcohol prevention program, the University of Dayton requires each member of the first-year class to complete AlcoholEdu for College: an online, non-opinionated, science-based course used on more than 500 campuses nationwide. Whether you drink or not, AlcoholEdu will empower you to make well-informed decisions about alcohol and help you better cope with the drinking behavior of your peers.

All incoming first-year students are required to complete AlcoholEdu. Failure to complete both Parts 1 and 2 will adversely affect your housing for the next academic year.

- After completing Part 1, approximately 45 days later, you will receive an automated email asking you to complete the course. At this time, you will need to log in again to complete Part 2, which takes approximately 15 minutes.

- NOTE: Only after you’ve finished Part 1 and have a passing grade of 80% or better and also finished Part 2, have you completed the program.
• ALSO NOTE: This course is required. Failure to complete the course will adversely affect your housing for the next academic year!

The course includes three surveys that offer you feedback on your alcohol-related attitudes and behaviors. All survey responses are strictly confidential; the University of Dayton will only receive information about the student body as a whole and will NEVER see any individual student’s answers.

DIRECTIONS

To take AlcoholEdu, you will need a computer with Internet access and audio capabilities. Read the directions below carefully; if you do not follow the steps correctly, you may not receive information about completing Part 2 of AlcoholEdu.

• Go to http://college.alcoholedu.com/

• In the “New User” box, enter C202480A

• On the registration page, enter the information requested.

For email address, you must enter your University of Dayton email address. For Student ID, enter your student ID number.

You do not have to complete Phase 1 in one sitting. However, make sure you click the “NEXT” button at the end of a section to save your work. If you do not click the “NEXT” button, you will have to repeat the section you just completed.

TECHNICAL HELP

Should you experience technical difficulties, the AlcoholEdu Technical Support Center is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. Simply click on the “Technical Help” button located in the upper right-hand corner of every AlcoholEdu for College screen. Live Phone Support: 866-384-9062.

THE CATALOG
The Catalog consists of undergraduate and graduate issues released annually. The issue that applies to your academic program depends on the year in which you began your studies at the University of Dayton. Your issue is August 2012.

STUDENT HANDBOOK
Each student at the University of Dayton is responsible for knowing and observing the policies, regulations, and procedures contained in the official student handbook. This publication also provides useful information on such subjects as University services, student organizations and resource numbers. The Student Code of Conduct can be found in the Student Handbook. The handbook is given to residential students who check into traditional residence halls. Commuter Students will receive a copy at the Commuter Student Welcome during New Student Orientation. Those that live in apartments and houses can choose to pick one up when they check in as they are provided. All of the residence hall front desks as well as Residential Properties and Kennedy Union are considered pick up locations for those that are not given one at check in. The student handbook and Code of Conduct can also be viewed at www.udayton.edu/studev/civility/.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY
Student academic dishonesty is defined as any attempt by the student to obtain — or assist another student to obtain — a grade higher than honestly earned. The maximum penalty for a proven case of academic dishonesty is an F in the course. Under some circumstances, such as repeated offenses or theft, additional penalties may include dismissal from the major, dismissal from the School or College, removal from the Honors Program or dismissal from the University.

ATTENDANCE POLICY
To assist first-year students in their transition to college responsibilities, it is felt that a policy of compulsory attendance is necessary; therefore, first-year students will be permitted only a limited number of absences. For first-year students, the allowable number of absences in the first term or in the second term will be equal to twice the meeting times a week (or four class days in any third-term session). A student exceeding this number will be referred to the student’s dean for possible counseling and appropriate action. Any undergraduate student who has not accrued 30 semester hours of credit is considered a first-year student. Attendance policies for specific courses may allow for fewer absences as specified in the course syllabus and attendance policies may exist in courses taken beyond the first year.

STUDENT STATUS

Full-time
A student with an academic schedule of at least 12 semester hours is considered a full-time student.

Three-fourth-time
A student with an academic schedule of eight to 11 semester hours is considered a three-fourth-time student.

Part-time
A student with an academic schedule of less than eight semester hours is considered a part-time student.

TRANSCRIPTS
The Registrar will issue an official transcript if requested by the student provided that no outstanding financial obligation to the University exists. All transcripts so requested require payment in advance. A free transcript certificate will be given to each graduate when the official diploma is issued. For more information, go to www.udayton.edu/flyersfirst/forms/transcript.php.

ADDING AND DROPPING CLASSES
As a first-year student, you must meet with your academic adviser or appropriate Dean’s office and receive approval when you would like to drop or add a class. Add/drop forms are available from your adviser, your department office, the Flyers First Office, located in St. Mary’s Hall, Room 411, and online www.udayton.edu/flyersfirst/registrar/#6.
COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES
WELCOME, MEMBERS OF THE INCOMING CLASS OF 2012

The College of Arts and Sciences is delighted to have you with us as you begin this new and exciting phase in your life. We know you will have questions and concerns, and the Dean’s office is here to help you. When in doubt, whatever your issue, we are a good place to start and will be more than happy to connect you with the correct office or person on campus. We are located on the second floor of O’Reilly Hall, which is also the ROTC building.

Please Note: The student affairs division of the College of Arts and Sciences will be open to answer your advising questions Sunday, August 19, Noon to 2 p.m. in O’Reilly Hall, Room 104.

Additionally, we will be available on a walk-in basis during the first week of classes. You can also make an appointment with your Assistant Dean by calling 937–229–2611 during the rest of the school year. This phone number can also be used for any academic questions you may have at any time. Frequently, many new students are not aware that changing their courses (dropping/adding) can only be done for the first five days of classes. After that time a student may only drop a course. So if you have concerns after attending a course twice, please plan to discuss it with your Assistant Dean quickly.

You will meet Dr. Paul Benson, Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, at his welcome on Monday.

It is a great time to attend UD and be a part of the School of Business Administration (SBA). We are delighted that you are here! We are nationally recognized, and you will have numerous curricular and co-curricular opportunities available to you. We want every student to graduate and be successful!
STUDENT ADVISING IN THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
All first-year students will be assigned an academic adviser and a peer adviser in the SBA Center for Academic Success. The Center and your academic advisers are your first stop for course and registration information. Academic advisers are full-time staff professionals. Peer advisers are competitively selected junior and senior SBA majors who will be available to answer questions and help you settle in at UD. First-year students who have declared a major will also be assigned a faculty adviser. Academic and peer advisers are located in Miriam Hall, Room 108.

Additional services available to business students in the SBA Center for Academic Success are provided by our Career Services adviser, an Academic Success Specialist and the business librarian.

FIRST-YEAR BUSINESS COURSES
All business students take essentially the same curriculum during their first year, whether they have declared a major or are a discover business major. This includes two introductory business courses. Students take BAI 150, Business Education Planning, in the fall semester. BAI 150 introduces students to the University and the School of Business Administration. Topics include the University’s resources that are available to help students be successful academically, the Catholic, Marianist traditions that form the foundation for UD, the business majors and academic opportunities within the SBA, the curriculum and graduation requirements, and ethics. Students develop an academic plan in this course for the major(s) they intend to pursue and a résumé. BAI 151 Business Integration Experience is taken in the Spring Semester. This course provides students a more in-depth appreciation of business functions and promotes both communication and leadership skills.

We are proud of our long-standing tradition of preparing outstanding professionals. The School’s vision is to prepare distinctive graduates who will effectively and efficiently utilize the highest quality of learning, leadership and scholarship to build strong learning communities and develop collaborative, caring partnerships.
DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SPORT SCIENCE
Wellness and sport are not just areas of study; they are a way of life. Health and Sport Science majors prepare to be proficient and professional in a vocation related to wellness, physical activity, sports and physical therapy. At the University of Dayton, the study of Health and Sport Science is about building communities through critical reflection. Because our areas of expertise require professionals to interact with others — and perhaps profoundly affect their lives — valuable real-world experiences are part of the curriculum.

HSS101: Introductory Course All first-year health and sport science majors will take HSS 101 in the fall semester. HSS 101 is offered Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 1 – 1:50 p.m. in Frericks Center, Room 10. This course will be taught by Mr. Gerry Gallo. Please be sure to check your course schedule to see what section you are in.

The Department of Teacher Education has a Peer Advisory Program for all first-year candidates. This program assigns an upper-class student mentor to each first-year candidate to provide guidance, information, and reassurance during this time of transition. Candidates meet their peer advisers during the first week of orientation to the university and continually throughout the first semester.

FIRST-YEAR FACULTY
During the first year, all teacher education students will take EDT 109 during the Fall Semester and EDT 110 Spring Semester. WE ARE WHERE YOU LIVE
Make friends. Connect with others in faith. Find someone to listen and a place to hang out. Get support with a struggle. Go to a quiet place to reflect. We focus on creating welcoming communities with opportunities for students focused on faith, community, service and social justice. You’ll find a place to grow spiritually with friends and mentors who will support and challenge you — and have fun too. Seek out the Campus Ministry office in your residence hall to learn more about what we have to offer you.
CATHOLIC WORSHIP
Celebrating the Catholic faith through liturgy is the heart of the UD experience. Students and Marianists collaborate to facilitate nourishing experiences of Mass. Ever sat on the floor with your friends singing a song of praise? Ever been moved to tears by the sound of a pipe organ and full choir? Ever left church with the words of the homily still echoing in your heart? That’s Mass at UD. The prophet Isaiah said: “listen carefully to me, and eat what is good … listen, so that you may live.” The table is set: what are you waiting for?

RETREATS
Campus Ministry offers a variety of retreats throughout the year with chances to meet new people, escape the stress of school, connect your faith, build community and have fun. While most retreats are Catholic in tradition, students of all religious backgrounds participate and lead. New Beginnings and The Road Less Travelled are planned especially for first-year students. Visit www.udayton.edu/ministry/retreats/ for a complete listing and registration information.

SERVICE
The University of Dayton provides countless opportunities for students to immerse themselves in service for others. Take a trip halfway across the world or join a campus organization that serves the Dayton community. Visit www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/ to learn more about all of the service opportunities that the Center for Social Concern has to offer.

ALL ARE WELCOME
Students of all religious traditions participate in many Campus Ministry activities. The University of Dayton’s Interdenominational Ministry also provides a community of faith for students from various Christian denominations. Visit www.udayton.edu/ministry/udim/ to learn more about interdenominational worship, bible study, and retreats — and how you can be involved.

A prayer room on the lower level of Alumni Hall (room 003) is available for use by Muslim students, faculty and staff for prayer throughout the day. A variety of student religious organizations also support the faith development of students from many different religious traditions.
