You are joining a top-tier national Catholic research university that is defined by a search for knowledge and a belief that we learn best in community.

This is an extraordinary community of faith, of action, of belief in the power of service and of working together. That's our Catholic, Marianist educational tradition.

At the University of Dayton, professors question and challenge students in an effort to prepare them with the ability to adapt in a changing world. Students will grow in faith and learn to act more compassionately and with purpose — in the workplace, in their own communities and on the world stage. They will find their passion.

Take advantage of all this great university has to offer, inside and outside the classroom. This is the beginning of an educational journey that will enable students to discover their abilities, realize their potential — and perhaps even change the world.

We wish you academic success and all of God's blessings,

Daniel J. Curran, Ph.D.       Joseph E. Saliba, Ph.D.
President                             Provost

WELCOME TO THE FAMILIES OF THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON’S INCOMING CLASS OF 2012!
On behalf of the Division of Student Development, it gives me great pleasure to welcome you and your student to the University of Dayton's Catholic and Marianist community. I look forward to getting to know you and sharing in your son or daughter's important college journey.

The first year of college life will be filled with challenges and exciting new possibilities. To this end, our staff is here to assist your son or daughter to become acclimated with the campus community, to become involved in student life, and to navigate a successful journey this coming year and beyond.

As you participate in New Student Orientation, you will discover it is a family-oriented, academic introduction to the University. It is designed to allow you and your student to learn more about our campus community and student life. Our orientation leaders, faculty, students and staff have worked diligently to make the experience memorable and beneficial to your family. We hope that you will leave with a greater understanding of our Commitment to Community and what it means to be a UD Flyer.

Thank you for all that you do in supporting your students and enabling us to continue our mission in Student Development.

Best wishes for an outstanding experience with your student during New Student Orientation!

Sincerely,

William M. Fischer, J.D.
Vice President for Student Development

Welcome to the University of Dayton family! In the next four years, your child will be going through a lot of life changing events, and we are so grateful that you’ve put your trust in our faculty, staff and fellow students to help guide them on their journey. At UD, we want to become your extended family and create a strong network of support for all of our students.

Leaving home for the first time can be both a challenging and exciting transition for everyone involved. Our New Student Orientation team recognizes that, and we have been working hard to make their first week at school as smooth and fun as possible.

We are proud to call the University of Dayton our home and are very excited to welcome all of our new students and their families into our community.

Go Flyers!

EARLY DROP-OFF: AUGUST 11, 12 AND 13, 2012

Make move-in easier — experience Early Drop-off! UD is again offering new students the opportunity to drop off their belongings before orientation begins! Students can register for a one hour time slot before Move-in Day.

Early Drop-off timeslots are available on August 11, 12 and 13 between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. To register for an Early Drop-off time, visit go.udayton.edu/nso between July 5 and 31, 2012. Early Drop-off times must be prearranged and are strictly limited to one hour. Early Drop-off and Move-in Day routes may be different due to construction on Brown Street. Early Drop-off driving routes will be posted at go.udayton.edu/nso. On August 18, students will be able to bring any additional items, pick up their FlyerCard, attend important orientation sessions and get to know their floormates.

Make move-in as easy as possible by starting early — register for Early Drop-off! Questions? Email New Student Programs at nso@udayton.edu.

WE CAN’T WAIT TO HAVE YOU HERE!
Moving can be a lot of work—packing, loading the car, unloading the car, carrying boxes up and down stairs, unpacking and getting settled in your room.

We want your move to campus on Saturday, August 18 to run as smoothly as possible. The move-in process will begin at 7 a.m. and end at noon.
In order to ensure the most efficient move-in day possible, the New Student Orientation staff has established a drop and go process that enables multiple cars to pull up to the curb at each residence hall, unload and then move their car to an outer parking area so that other cars may unload. All traffic will be routed according to their specific residence hall assignment (see specific directions on page 7 or view the map on page 26). Encourage your student to print a hang tag for your car’s rearview mirror for the hall where he or she is assigned to live. Hang tags and the directional signs are color coded to ensure an easy trip to your residence hall front door. Hang tags will be posted on the Orientation tab of Porches (porches.udayton.edu), as well as on go.udayton.edu/nso/. Housing assignments will be posted on Porches in July.

Our move-in staff and Blue Crew team members will greet you at each drop and go location. Here, you will unload your student’s luggage and boxes, and our staff will help carry these items to the assigned room.

TRANSITIONING TO COLLEGE

The transition from high school to college will be a big one not only for your son or daughter, but also for you as a parent. You’ve put a lot of time, effort, and love into raising your student, and the time has come for him or her to practice all those life lessons! Your son or daughter’s college experience will be full of opportunities for growth and development. We want to help prepare you with some information about your student’s important transition to living a new, more independent life as a college student. Learning to navigate this transition may take some practice from both of you, but together, you can have a wonderful first-year experience.

HONORS STUDENTS WELCOME PRE-ORIENTATION PROGRAM

New Honors students are invited to participate in the Honors Students Welcome on Friday, August 17 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. After moving into the residence halls, families are invited to attend the Welcome Lunch at 11:30 a.m. Dr. David Darrow, director of the University Honors Program, will answer your questions immediately following lunch. Parents are then free until 5 p.m., while incoming students enjoy an afternoon of activities led by upperclass Honors students. There is no cost to attend this program, and interested students can register through Porches (porches.udayton.edu) after accepting membership to the Honors Program. For more information, visit www.udayton.edu/honors/.

TRANSITIONS PRE-ORIENTATION PROGRAM

Transitions is a free pre-orientation program for incoming first-year multicultural students, sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Affairs held on Thursday, August 16 and Friday, August 17, 2012. Through a series of presentations and activities, students are introduced to integral support services and resources, as well as given an opportunity to network with fellow UD students, faculty, staff, and administrators. For more information, visit www.udayton.edu/studev/oma/programs/transitions.php or contact the Office of Multicultural Affairs at 937-229-3634.

CAMP BLUE

Camp Blue is an exciting new opportunity for first-year students held at Camp Kern in Oregonia, OH. This three-day, two-night program takes place August 14 to 17 and allows participants the chance to test their leadership skills, learn how to work with a group, and challenge themselves as they participate in a variety of team-building and adventure activities. Not only will campers get to move in early (August 13) and get a jump start on their leadership development, but they will also be assisting their fellow first-year students as members of the Blue Crew move-in team on August 18 as a way to give back to their UD community. Registration for Camp Blue will open at go.udayton.edu/nso on June 11 at noon and will continue through noon on June 15. Space is limited, so please visit the registration site early. More details about the program, cost, and schedule will be mailed in late May. Visit go.udayton.edu/campblue/ for up to date information.
TRANSFER STUDENTS

Transfer students are encouraged to attend and participate in New Student Orientation events to become familiar with the UD campus and community. Below is a glimpse of some of the events that we feel are vital to the incoming student’s transition to UD. For a complete Transfer Orientation schedule and additional information about your transition to UD, please visit go.udayton.edu/nso/.

Orientation and Move-in for transfer students begins on Sunday, August 19 at 8 a.m. Transfer students will meet on Sunday, August 19 at 7 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Hangar for the Community Dinner. After dinner, students can enjoy ice cream at the Campus Ministry Ice Cream Social and then at 8:00 p.m., take some time in 114 Science Center to get acquainted with other transfer students, review the Orientation schedule and tour campus before attending the social.

The official Transfer Student Welcome will take place on Tuesday, August 21 at 11 a.m. in Kennedy Union. After a welcome from President Curran, students and families will be able to attend a variety of sessions, and faculty and staff will be available to answer questions. Transfer students are required to participate and their families are encouraged to attend. This event will help the entire family get acclimated to the UD campus.

If you have questions about transfer programs contact the Office of New Student Programs at 937-229-2229 or email nso@notes.udayton.edu.

COMMUTER STUDENTS

More than 200 student organizations are offered on campus, and one is designed specifically for commuter students. Commuters on Campus is a club that has monthly events that allow commuters to meet each other and become more involved on campus. Past events include a Speed Meet, speakers and free lunch events. Students can contact the group at commuters@campus@gmail.com for more information. Currently, there is also a Senate seat in the Student Government Association for the Commuter Senator. Fall elections take place early in the school year; visit sga.udayton.edu for more information. There is a Commuter Lounge located in Kennedy Union, Room 118 for all commuter students to use. It’s a great place to hang out between classes and includes a microwave, refrigerator and lockers for students. Feel free to contact the Commuter Adviser, Brandy Clifford, with any concerns or questions at 937-229-3333.

Parking Passes

Be sure to buy your student parking pass! Commuter students should visit parking.udayton.edu to purchase a pass. Costs vary by year, and parking is located in S1 Lot, at the corner of Stewart and Brown Streets.
COMMUNITY SERVICE PROJECT

The New Student Orientation team is excited to continue the service component of the program that began in 2011. Selecting an organization that serves the greater Dayton community and benefits school-aged children is extremely important to the leadership team. Shoes 4 the Shoeless, a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing properly fitting shoes for children in desperate need, was selected as the recipient for 2012.

Shoes 4 the Shoeless helps preschool and school-aged children in the Dayton region obtain new shoes and socks. The organization provides these items, as well as underwear, free of charge. Shoes 4 the Shoeless believes that every child deserves a properly fitting shoe so that children can walk without pain, and have warm and dry feet so they can enjoy running and jumping! To participate, please bring one of the suggested items below to the President’s Welcome on Saturday, August 18 and look for the drop-off locations in the UD Arena Concourses.

Donations needed:
• New tennis shoes in any children or teenage size
• Socks for children or teenagers
• Underwear for children

For more information about Shoes 4 the Shoeless, please visit their website at shoes4theshoeless.org.

SAVE THE DATE

Family Weekend is a great time to return to UD to visit your student and experience a weekend of activities on campus. Registration information is mailed to the student’s home address in the fall, and registration will begin September 14 at tickets.udayton.edu. The registration deadline is October 12 but register early because some events will fill quickly.

WEEKS OF WELCOME

The excitement of orientation is not over when classes begin! Throughout the first semester, many events are offered to encourage first-year students to meet new people and learn about the UD community. Weeks of Welcome (WoW) is an eight-week program that consists of educational and entertaining events designed to help new students get acquainted with the University community and the city of Dayton. WoW programming themes include academics, creative and cultural arts, diversity, relationships and community, service, social, spirituality, and wellness (safety, nutrition, financial, health, etc). Students will be able to view events weekly on porches.udayton.edu starting on the first day of class. For a complete calendar of events, go to the New Student Orientation website at go.udayton.edu/nso/.

WEEK OF REFLECTION

Week of Reflection is an event held during the spring semester to encourage students to pause and reflect upon everything that they have learned both inside and outside of the classroom during their first year. The program looks at the areas of leadership, scholarship, diversity, wellness and service and how each of these aspects plays a part in individual growth during the year. The week concludes with the annual Brother Joseph W. Stander Symposium, which exists to recognize and celebrate academic excellence in undergraduate and graduate education. The Stander Symposium represents the Marianist tradition of education through community and is the principal campus-wide event in which faculty and students actualize our mission to be a “community of learners.”
For all students on campus, professors serve as a valuable resource for academic and extracurricular activities. Questions about homework assignments, group projects, exams and other issues are always best resolved with a discussion between the student and professor.

Every first-year student is assigned an academic adviser, usually a faculty member in his or her major field. Advisers help students to determine course schedules, as well as academic plans leading to graduation. Advisers also help their students find internships and offer professional advice for future careers. It is essential for the student to be an informed and active part of the advising process, and students often benefit from meeting with their adviser on a regular basis, not just when it’s time to schedule classes for next term.

The Office of the Dean is another important resource for students and their families. Each academic school and college within UD has its own dean’s office to address various issues that arise. A minimum 3.0 gpa is required to maintain a University Scholarship.

ACADEMIC STANDARDS

Student academic dishonesty is defined as any attempt by the student to obtain, or assist another student to obtain, a grade higher than honestly earned. The maximum penalty for a proven case of academic dishonesty is an F in the course. Under some circumstances, such as repeated offenses or theft, additional penalties may include dismissal from the major, dismissal from the school or college, removal from the Honors Program or dismissal from the University.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

For first-year students, the allowable number of absences in the first or second term will be equal to twice the meeting times a week.

STUDENT STATUS

Full-time
A student with an academic schedule of at least 12 semester hours is considered a full-time student.

Three-fourth time
A student with an academic schedule of eight to 11 semester hours is considered a three-fourth time student.

Part-time
A student with an academic schedule of less than eight semester hours is considered a part-time student and is not permitted to live in University housing.

What Do We Do If...?

Part of the college transition is learning how to address issues and difficulties that may arise. We encourage you to have honest and open conversations with your son or daughter about the challenges of college life. If speaking with your student does not bring complete resolution, here are some campus resources for common issues.

Academics

FLYERS FIRST

Pick up a transcript. Meet with a financial aid counselor to discuss your financial aid award. Find ways to get more involved on campus and improve your grades. Apply for a job to earn some extra money. Your UD student will have many things they need to do, in addition to attending classes and completing homework. Fortunately, Flyers First offers access to five frequented offices (registrar and registration, financial aid, student employment, student success and parent engagement and veterans services) all in one place to save time and give access to the services needed for success. For more information, visit www.udayton.edu/flyersfirst/.

UD’S OFFICE OF STUDENT SUCCESS AND PARENT ENGAGEMENT, a part of the Flyers First team (www.udayton.edu/flyersfirst/index.php) is available to help students and their families obtain the most positive experience possible during their time on campus. To learn more about the services that the Office of Student Success and Parent Engagement provides, visit www.udayton.edu/flyersfirst/success/.

Supporting Student Learning

If your student is concerned about classes, professors or grades, encourage him or her to speak first with the professor. If your student is not satisfied with the outcome of that meeting, he or she should make an appointment to speak with the department chair or a representative in the academic dean’s office.

The Learning Teaching Center’s Office of Learning Resources provides many free services to support learning. Walk-in tutoring is available for many general education classes, students who attend our walk-in tutoring service work with tutors who have taken the course and been successful in it. Supplemental Instruction (SI) is also available for students in selected courses. SI, trained student leaders meet with a group of students in the same class to review course concepts through discussion and a variety of interactive group activities.

The learning resources staff members are happy to meet with students to discuss academic goals and current course progress and to provide information about a variety of study skills. Professional staff are available to meet with students in single or multiple sessions. Referrals to campus and community resources will be made when appropriate, and informal disability screenings are offered.

The Office of Learning Resources also offers services to support students with disabilities. Students can learn how to access programs and services such as academic, housing, and testing accommodations; individual consultations; on-going disability management; and course materials in alternative formats.

Making the Transition to College Living

It is important to remember that your son or daughter will be adjusting to a whole new way of living this year. Your student will live on a floor with people he or she has probably never met before, face new academic challenges and learn the art of managing time with limited adult supervision. The Counseling Center helps students to discover goals, handle new relationships, deal with test anxiety, select a major, and a variety of other concerns typical of college students. For more information, visit www.udayton.edu/studev/counselingcenter/.

Health & Community Standards

Health Concerns

The Health Center is available to provide outpatient care to students, including treatment of illness and injuries, women’s health, immunizations and x-rays. All students enrolled at UD may use the Health Center, where both male and female physicians are available. All University of Dayton students should carry an insurance card (or photocopy) which can be obtained from your insurance carrier.

We believe in protecting the health and well-being of all members of our community. Therefore, all students are required to carry health insurance. For your convenience, you will be automatically enrolled in the University’s health insurance plan, which is... billed to your student account. If you already have equivalent health insurance, you may waive participation in the University’s insurance plan by completing the health insurance waiver by August 15. Information will be provided during the summer on Porches, about how to complete the waiver.

All incoming students INCLUDING LAW AND INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS born after 1956 are required to submit proof (dates) of two (2) MMRs (Measles, Mumps, and Rubella), and do a Tuberculosis (TB) screening. Students may go to www.udayton.edu/studev/healthcenter/#5 to download and print the form. A healthcare provider’s signature is required.

The Health Center does not have an outpatient pharmacy, but does carry some commonly prescribed medications which are available to students if ordered by a UD Health Center physician. Payment of those medications will be placed on the student’s account at the Bursar. If the Health Center does not carry the medications, or if the student wants to use their insurance, the medication may be ordered from a local pharmacy. Payment to the outside pharmacy will be the student’s responsibility.

Because most college students are legal adults (age 18 or older), their medical records are protected by law from disclosure without consent from the student. A student may give written consent to discuss a visit regarding a particular diagnosis with their parents, but separate consent for different visits is required. Students may request a copy of their visit note or medical record (a charge may apply) which they may then share with their parents if they choose to do so. For more information, go to www.udayton.edu/studev/healthcenter.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICIES

Because it is our goal to create responsible members of society, the University of Dayton abides by confidentiality policies and laws for students over the age of 18. If your son or daughter visits the Health or Counseling Center, he or she must give permission before we are able to release any information to you, unless the student is in a life threatening situation. In regard to academic and disciplinary information, you must also have your student’s permission before faculty and staff are able to release information to you. For more details about confidentiality, please contact the Health Center, the Counseling Center or the academic dean’s office of your student’s program.

BEHAVIORAL ISSUES

The University of Dayton’s Student Standards of Behavior and Code of Conduct have been developed to support the Catholic and Marianist philosophy of community living. Students are expected to read and adhere to these standards as well as all city, state and federal laws. If a student is documented for a violation of the code, the student conduct process is initiated. Students are afforded an opportunity to provide mitigation and testimony concerning allegations of misconduct in a private meeting. In accordance with the Family Education Right to Privacy Act (FERPA), parents are not notified of disciplinary action unless deemed necessary by the Dean of Students. The Dean has approved a letter of notification to the parents of any student who is placed on University Disciplinary Probation as a result of a violation of the alcohol or drug policy as permitted by FERPA. FERPA also restricts information sharing with parents about students, so it is important that parents keep an open line of communication with their students to be informed about possible violations. Students found responsible for a policy violation will be issued consequences that must be completed by the due dates provided. The Student Standards of Behavior and Code of Conduct are reviewed and adapted prior to the beginning of each academic year and are posted online at www.udayton.edu/studev/civility/.

ALCOHOL POLICY VIOLATIONS

No student under the legal drinking age is permitted to purchase, consume, possess or distribute alcoholic beverages. Persons of legal drinking age are not permitted to provide alcohol to those who are underage. In an effort to provide an appropriate academic environment, the University does not permit displays of alcohol containers in the residence halls, the use or possession of kegs, the distribution of alcohol in mass quantities and/or overuse or abuse of alcohol. Any violation of the code of conduct will initiate the student conduct process. Lastly, alcohol abuse is taken seriously by the University and may result in professional alcohol dependency counseling at the student’s expense and in some cases suspension from the University. For a complete copy of the Student Standards of Behavior and Code of Conduct, visit www.udayton.edu/studev/civility/. For additional alcohol resources, please visit the Community Wellness Services website at www.udayton.edu/studev/wellness/.

Campus Ministry

SPIRITUALITY AND RELIGION

With the transition to college, many students will seek ways to get more involved in and learn more about the faith traditions in which they were raised; other students will question these same traditions. In either case, UD’s Campus Ministry program offers retreats, worship, education, social, and service opportunities to people from all religious traditions. A Campus Minister lives in or works in every residential area. More information can be found at www.udayton.edu/ministry/.
GENERAL PARKING INFORMATION

Because of the volume of people on campus for New Student Orientation, permits are not required. However, when you visit your son or daughter during the academic year, you will need to get a temporary parking pass from Parking Services, located in College Park Center, 1529 Brown Street. Passes can also be obtained at the visitor centers located at the entrance to Lot C (Stonemill & Evanston) or University Circle (College Park and L Street). There is no charge for the temporary visitor pass.

Parking is prohibited at all times in the following areas: reserved parking spaces, double-letter lots, campus roadways, College Park Drive and the right side of the University Circle. Please call 937-229-2128 with questions.

Computing on Campus

TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES

All UD students are required to have a notebook computer that meets the academic hardware and software requirements of their major. Additional information can be found on porches.udayton.edu.
MEAL PLANS

All students living in a residence hall on campus are required to have a meal plan. There are five meal plan options; three are debit plans and two are structured plans with blocks of funds to purchase a meal. Refer to your student bill to see what plan you have selected. Meal plans can be changed anytime through the first two weeks of school. For more information on meal plans, go to dining.udayton.edu or call 937-229-2441 Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

All dining locations offer à la carte service. There are two food courts, two restaurants, two convenience stores with one deli, a gourmet coffee, pretzel and ice cream shop, and a snack shop in the University’s recreation complex. Dining services is proud of our national recognition for the past two years and our two new restaurants located in Virginia W. Kettering residence hall that feature the latest college dining trends. Hours of service range from 7:00 a.m. to 1:00 a.m.

Students who have questions about or need counseling for special diets, should contact our Dietitian, Wylan Ganote at wganote1@udayton.edu. Confidential counseling is available for students at no charge. More information is available on our website.

FLYERCARD

Important: All students are required to have a FlyerCard, the University’s official photo ID card. Students who have submitted photos in advance may pick up their FlyerCard Saturday, August 18, in the basement of Chaminade Hall or Sunday, August 19, in the Campus Card Services office in Powerhouse, Room 102. Students who need to have their photo taken for their ID should go to the Campus Card Services office in the Powerhouse, Room 102, Saturday or Sunday during orientation. Hours during Orientation Weekend are Saturday, August 18, 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday, August 19, 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Students who have uploaded their photos may also pick up their FlyerCard during the summer. The Campus Card Services office is open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Students use their FlyerCard for just about everything — paying for meals, checking out library books, accessing the RecPlex and getting into their residence hall. Your student may also use this official UD photo identification card for Flyer Express, a declining-balance prepaid account accessed with the FlyerCard. The money in the student’s Flyer Express account is carried over from one semester to the next and from year to year.
