

UNIQUE PROCEDURES RELATED TO COVID-19

Flyer COVID-19 Agreement and Decisions for a Student to Continue Studies Remotely.

Decisions regarding a student's failure to comply with the Flyer COVID-19 Agreement and whether the student should be removed from campus to continue studies remotely, because of the nature of the pandemic, will be made by the Vice President for Student Development and the Dean of Students, and/or their respective designees. The formalized processes contained in the Student Handbook that apply to other behavioral requirements do not apply to allegations regarding behavior violating the Flyer COVID-19 Agreement. However, if a student has concerns regarding the decision made, the student can write a letter to the Dean of Students Office. Students who live in campus housing will be sent home. Others will be banned from campus.

Code of Conduct Proceedings Triggered by COVID-19 Protocol Concerns. If the Code of Conduct applies to an allegation related to COVID-19, note that the Vice President for Student Development and Dean of Students can implement measures quickly, including interim suspension. For students who jeopardize safety protocols put in place because of the COVID-19 pandemic, sanctions will be heightened as compared to violations not related to the COVID-19 protocols. Students may face a choice of suspension or going home.

Student Organizations. Student organizations that run afoul of COVID-19 protocols can have their University-recognized status revoked or their activities suspended for a designated period of time.
